

KLOVE provides a valuable service to my community with local event announcements and consistent, wholesome music that I do not have to worry about when my children are with me. This is my #1 used station in my car and house. KLOVE serves the public interest in many ways beyond community support including no commercial music across my entire work geography eastern Nebraska and southern South Dakota. I know most wherever I go, I can find KLOVE.